DJ Angus Sciencetech Foundation
IUPUI Center for Earth and Environmental Science (CEES)

Saturday, June 8
10:00 AM – 12:00 PM
Eagle Creek Park Earth Discovery Center

Itinerary

10:00	Introductions and Field Trip Program Itinerary	All
10:30	Exploratory Nature Hike with Eagle Creek Volunteer Naturalists	Students
	Q&A with Field Trip Chaperones	Parents / Guardians and Teacher Participants
11:45	Wrap Up	All
12:00	End	All

Overview

The meeting provides the opportunity for student and teacher participants, parents/guardians, and field trip chaperones to meet prior to departure. DJ Angus Sciencetech Foundation members will present an overview of the program and itinerary. Students will then participate in an exploratory nature hike led by Eagle Creek volunteer naturalists Doug Sherow, Tom Nicholls, and Michael White. This hike will return to the Earth Discovery Center at 11:45. Students will need to wear comfortable clothing and shoes. During the hike, parents/guardians and teacher participants will have the opportunity to ask additional questions and further discuss trip details with the chaperones.

Meeting Location

Earth Discovery Center of Eagle Creek Park
5901 Delong Rd, Indianapolis, IN 46254-9797

When entering at the Eagle Creek Park gate, please tell the attendant that you have a meeting with the water resource trip at the Earth Discovery Center to enter without a visitation fee. Follow the signs to the Earth Discovery Center. To assist you with navigating to the Earth Discovery Center, we have provided a Google Map on the following page and/or you may request a map of the park from the gate attendant.

There is ample parking available onsite. Please enter the main entrance of the Earth Discovery Center and go to the Exhibition Room. The Exhibition Room is located to the left of the Information Desk as you face the desk. See the map on the next page for location.
